Volunteer Experience & Availability (Incomplete forms will be returned)

How much equine experience do you have (please be specific)?
Approximately how many hours per week are you available? Provide days and times.
Have you ever volunteered at another rescue or humane society?
Do you have any pets? If so, what kind?
Describe any experience you've had working with horses and other animals.
Certain volunteer activities require walking, mobility, bending, and lifting of heavy objects. Do you have any health limitations?
Are you allergic or uncomfortable around certain animals? If so, what animals?
What brought you to Equine Rescue Center?

Release of Liability

Please read carefully, your signature of acknowledgement is required.

The undersigned volunteer will be performing services from time to time on behalf of Equine Rescue Center. The volunteer agrees with ERC that he/she will not hold ERC or any of its directors, officers, or staff liable for any injuries, related medical, accidental death or other costs or expenses incurred by the Volunteer in connection with the services performed by the volunteer on behalf of ERC. This release of liability shall apply even if ERC or the directors, officers, or staff of ERC have acted negligently or have negligently failed to act. This release of liability shall not apply, however, to the extent that ERC or the directors, officers, or staff of ERC have acted intentionally or with willful want or disregard for the volunteer's safety. The volunteer acknowledges the inherent risks of working with animals or in the vicinity of animals, and the volunteer accepts these risks. If the volunteer is a minor, the volunteer's parent or legal guardian agrees for himself/herself and the volunteer that they both release ERC and its directors, officers, and staff, as stated above. If the volunteer is married, the volunteer's spouse releases ERC and its directors, officers, and staff from all causes of action based upon or relating to the loss of consortium in connection with any injuries/accidental death for which the volunteer has released ERC and its directors, officers, and staff.
